Poly: Voter registration effort was best results ever. Registered 117 and involved 25 new students in campaign. Campus student fee allocation board up and running very well. Concerned because students were called in to meet with Deans to sign pre drafted letters of support for student fees at ASU Poly. Concerned that all fee's are not outlined on website.

ASU West- Voter registration went well, huge kick off meeting with 1,000 of student and elected officials.

Downtown-No Report

Regent Martinez: Translate town hall idea from ASU to NAU. Universities in chance of mid-term budget cuts. Hiring freeze will be relevant at all universities in Arizona. Any expenditure over 50,000 will require approval from presidents office. Any department elimination or addition needs to go before the Board of Regents. Leg- Kathleen Templin

IA- Kendal nystedt

Finance- Kelly Stewart

Recognition of United States' Student Association- Bill Shiebler ( National Field Director ), Greg Cendana ( Vice President )
- Asked support from ASA to help battle the equal opportunity initiative in Colorado.

Discussion Items:

A. Voter Registration Debrief

- State-wide Level:

Pro's:

Kendal Nystedt- UA organizer to help NAU

Jon Pena- Thanked Erin and Billy for their help at NAU

Tommy Bruce- Staff aspect of planning was very helpful

Kendal Nsyted- Team captains for volunteers brilliant, Greek Race and Residence Hall not as effective as Club competition. Central location of office in Union was immensely helpful.

Andrew Rigazio- National forms were very helpful, but was not communicated to UA and NAU til very late in campaign

Con's:

Kendal Nystedt- Calls for highly ineffective. No sharing of best practices. Only shared numbers that were not helpful in relation to what worked and what didn't.

Tommy Bruce- Struggle of differentiation of goals and missions from ASA, student government and PIRG. Pride element of campuses does not help state-wide effort. Brad Busse didn't see the coaliton relevant in vote work in regards to communication, we were working as different entities.

Andrew Rigazio- Knowing audience would be effective ( for example when door-knocking it is expected to get one registration for each door knocked on, this caculation made ASU Tempe think they would gain 1,000 registrations from this when in actuality they recieved 200)

Tommy Bruce- Calculation and mathematical equations were not relative, and should be kept internal between board members so volunteers and interns are not discouraged.

Moving onto tuition.

Michael talks about moving on. wanting to put in a ad hoc committee..

Kelly-talking about cost of tuition as spoken by the Board of regents

-including fees! and everything to do with cost of tuition.

Michael- The core policy stand point: Working with ABOR to increase pressure on the State. Focus on the state. Working with the Solutions and talk about the cost of attendance. Strategies: talking about the percentage increase among the different universities. What should we do? using the middle range, medium family cost of living...

Kendal: Medium family income....but can't use it bc it dropped the last few years. 2nd. yes saying statements on putting the emphasis on the state leg- limit the discussion to see what we can really do. 3rd. Tuition will increase...would it be more effective if we just look at the quality of education...2nd. running a needs assessment to students. Pushing for accountability campaign. Asks David Martinez about pushing the median family income to the middle bracket, and he stats we shouldn't push for that number, but that is were are principal stands.

Michael suggests an internal message and external message.

Kendal: realizes that our action may look like a failure externally if an internal victory happens, especially while running an accountability campaign we want to let everyone know one unified message on a bigger scale.

Michael: Hold the state legislature accountable, and Kendal pushes to also hold the universities accountable immensely.

Michael: does not want to tie the Regents hands in a financial crisis, Tommy stats we are not tying hands but changing hands

Andrew: Difference between tying hands and transparency

Camille: Accountability to Professors sparks emotional resistance from a potential faculty member

Erin Hertsog: Messaging is key, tangible goals also key.

Brad: Setting a specific state-wide number is not relevant with schools experiencing locked in tuition

Kelly: Agrees with Brad that universities are experiencing different issues. Central district failed to communicate with president, and experienced different relay of information to the student body presidents that spoke with Crow.

Tommy: Accountability needs to be assessed to not only current and incoming tuition dollars.

Kendal: Three tiered policy. First, not specific number but fighting for access and affordability so we will be involved in setting level on tuition. Second, the student platform that has developed based on what are the student issues tuition dollars and how they are being spent, Third, predictability.

Kelly: Program fees back door tuition concern, ASU Poly 3 proposed new fees, $15,000 and $18,000 fees for specific programs + tuition per student? Website for fees: Academic fee proposals for the 2009-2010 academic year can be found at <http://provost.asu.edu/ABORfees>

Mark: How do you obtain the information to find out about this fees, Kelly stats that the senators of the student government meet with deans early on to establish what fees they will be pushing Discussion on the presidents and regents and fees.

Kendal: worried about the timeline and time frame. When are we getting together to vote on this stuff.

Michael: have the meeting come up with a plan this week then bring it to the board. Start tomorrow on where the students are in need.

Kendal: Wants to start soon

Michael Wants to start a ad hoc committee on tuition.

Kendal: when is our board meeting?

Michael in the next two weeks

Kendal by the 26th of Oct.

Michael Who wants to be on the committee: everyone raised their hand.

Serina: will work on setting the meeting, but there might be problems.

Tommy: wants to set up multiple times to meet

Kendal wants a meeting wizard

Serina: will set up the meetings

Tommy: not on the day of Homecoming for the board meeting

Michael start on surveys

Michael goes into textbook campaign plan! has a idea but not a plan.

Who will be on the campaign: Jon and

ASA foundation:

Serena: ASA is a 501 c4...being able to lobby. However does mean that we are not able to get grants or anything tax deduct able.

maybe come up with a 501 c3 so that we can receive grants and money. USSA has one..

ASU Mandatory Freshman Housing

Mark: When you make something mandatory you change the dynamic, the cheapest housing is over $4,000 dollar and also a required meal plan, the cheapest being $1,000. Maybe a solution is to knock off the mandatory meal if not the mandatory housing.

Mark and Andrew believe this mandate does not have to go before the Regents, David is hearing conflicting fees, Joel Sideman the ED of the board says sometimes the Regents review mandatory housing mandates, this will be decided in March board meeting not Decembers tuition meeting. ASU houses 6, 800 students and with the completion of a new housing facility they can house up to 4,000, resulting in 10,000 or more.

Tommy: The argument is ASU is building tons of housing facility and there are empty beds. Find out the meaning of state university and the benefit living at home in a state school is. Non traditional students will be granted a "exemption"

Michael: RHA vote against it at specific campuses

Kendal: Sees no impediments in voting to support this stance if it will help RHA vote favorably in this direction

Andrew: It will help just the opposite

Sara: Rha wants to vote on it first

David: do not rush this, but look into this perspective on cost of attendance and not vote on a stance

Tommy: Rha questions, requested by res life to take a vote? Sara: no. Do you take votes on residence hall rates increase, do they need approval to pass? Sara: No it is encouraged.

Kelly_ Highlights that RHA represents Tempe ASU campus, this is a problem when implementing university mandates
